Monday morning, where he serves on a board composed of two examiners of candidates for admission to the Naval Academy at Annapolis. The examinations are for appointments by Senator Proctor.

Nox-em-all shoes are full of wear and still not clumsy. H. P. Munson has sold these shoes for years and has established a reputation for furnishing the public the most durable shoe to be found in this vicinity. This is an established fact—no guess work.

A special meeting of the Cong'l society is called for Tuesday evening, crossing the track he was struck by the cow-catcher of the engine to the freight and hurled to the ground, cutting two slight wounds in his head and inflicting bruises on his left limb below the knee. He was carried to his home and Dr. Bates was called and dressed the wounds. There are no broken bones and Mr. Norton will be able to attend to his duties in a few days.

Rally At Cambridge.

On Friday night of this week, Hon.
F. C. Archibald of Manchester, and Hon. R. W. Hulburd will address the people of Cambridge upon the political issues of the day. Both are good speakers and all interested in the present political situation should hear them.

Concert This Evening.

A concert will be given at the Cong'l church this evening to which the public are invited. It will consist of an organ recital by Mr. Chas.
Walker of Albany, N. Y., a talented organist who is passing the summer here and he will be assisted by local talent. There will be a solo by Mrs.
Croft, selections by a mixed quartette, duet by Mrs. Powers and Miss Lillian Fisk, solos by Mrs. Powers and Mrs.
Fisk, Mr. Edward Woodbury of Burlington and organ voluntary by Miss Watts of Stowe. Miss Lena Irish will assist at the organ. The entertainment will be a rare treat for lovers of music and a large audience will doubtless be present. No admission will be charged.

Following the musicale a social hour and reception will be given and refreshments served, for which the sum of ten cents will be charged.

Last Campmeeting in Morrisville.

The last campmeeting closed with the services last Sunday. In the morning Rev. Mr. Dixon of Hardwick preached. In the afternoon the Presiding Elder delivered an able discourse and in the evening Rev. A. W.
Ford, who for years has led the singing, gave an interesting discourse.
The attendance was large and the meetings especially interesting.

At a business meeting on the campground last Saturday it was voted to give up the Morrisville Campmeeting Association and discontinue the meetings, the lease of the land having expired this year. A committee of three, H. Waite, C. F. Smith and F.
J. Smalley, was appointed to dispose of the property and settle all business pertaining to the association. The property will be sold at public auction at a date in the near future.

Ball Game Saturday.

Next Saturday afternoon the local ball team are scheduled to play a game with the Hardwick nine on the Old Fair Grounds. The game will be called at 3 o'clock sharp. The local management have tried their best to give the people here some good ball games and the game Saturday may be counted on as one of the best this season. Hardwick has won two games from Woodbury and two from Hyde Park. Morrisville has been playing good ball this summer, having won from Woodbury, Burlington, Fort Ethan Allen and North Hyde Park.

The Morrisville Military Band will furnish music during the afternoon.
Haying is now over, come out and see a good game and between the innings chin your neighbor on politics. The admission will be only 15c and children 10c.

Candidate For Representative.

The Republicans of this place have decided upon the name of C. H. A.
Stafford for their candidate for Representative and his nomination has been duly filed. According to the usual custom which has become an unwritten law, this is the year for the farmers to furnish a Representative, but by a general declaration of this element in favor of Mr. Stafford, he has consented to be the candidate.
He stands squarely on the platform as adopted by the State convention and a stronger or more popular candidate could not be nominated.

Death of Mrs. Julia Hamel.

Mrs. Julia Hamel, widow of the late John Hamel of this town, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs.
Orrin Russell, on Elmore street at about noon Monday, after an illness of bronchial consumption, which followed a severe attack of pneumonia, from which she suffered a year ago last spring.

Deceased was born in Canada 77 years ago and when but two years of age moved to this county and has resided here continually since. Since her marriage over fifty years ago she had resided on the farm purchased at that time in the south part of town and now occupied by her son, Frank Hamel. She came to Morrisville several months ago to remain with her daughter for a few weeks and was not able to again return to her old home. The deceased was in her 78th year and had been a remarkably strong and active woman. She was highly esteemed by all with whom she came in contact. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Della Foss of North Hyde Park, who is now 88 years of age and in very good health, and six children all of whom were present at the time of her death. The children are, Mrs. Orrin Russell, Mrs.
C. A. Gile, Miss Celia Hamel, A. C.
Hamel, Frank Hamel and Mrs. Mary Watson of Enosburgh, who has been caring for her for several weeks.

The funeral will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Russell home, Rev. Dr. I. P. Booth officiating.

HYDE PARK.

Mrs. Moses Goodhue is visiting friends in Franklin county.

Twenty applicants appeared at the teachers' examination Monday.

E. M. Slayton of Manchester, N. H. spent Sunday with Dr. Slayton.

Hyde Park was well represented at the "Rally" and a great rally it was.

A son, a handsome one, was born to Ray Vaughan and wife last Monday.

Miss Charlotte Arbuckle of Wolcott is spending a few days with Miss Alma Noyes.

Mrs. Chas. Bailey of Montpelier is a guest of Mrs. Melora Noyes and Miss Elna Kelley.

Mrs. J. W. Reed of Swanton spent the day—Wednesday last—with Mrs.
R. P. Putnam.

Miss Margaret Sullivan has returned and resumed stenographic duties for H. J. Lilley & Co.

Mrs. Lizzie Noble Bailey of Greensboro spent a few days the past week with her brother Fred.

See that your name is on the Check-List. Don't trust this important matter to your friends.

Miss E. L. Little, in the employ of Gov. Page, is taking a ten days' vacation at Sheldon Springs.

The Johnsons will come up here Friday and try their luck at base ball with the Hyde Parkers.

Owing to the picnic to Eden Saturday the Library will not be open until the following Monday.

Fred Slayton, wife and daughter of Calais were in town the first of the week, guests of Dr. Slayton.

Jacob Perloth returned from Burlington in improved health and is again on deck at the Hyde House.

If you are going traveling and want to save money in mileage, confer with A. H. Grimes. See advertisement.

Mrs. Flora Kelley Willard from New York state is stopping a few days at the home of Mrs. Henry Noyes.

Mrs. L. S. Small is having a furnace put in her residence, a new chimney being built and other improvements being made.

Mrs. Margaret Elphick and son Eddie of Montreal, are here to spend a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
V. L. Blodgett.

The Misses Gernon went from here to Putney Monday, where they will spend a few days and then join their family at the beach in Connecticut.

A handsome Barre granite monument has been set up on the Thos.
Hyde lot in the village cemetery. It is from W. M. Smith's granite works at Cambridge.

Miss Anna Lilley is rusticiating for a couple of weeks going to Burlington, Vergennes, Proctor and other places, where she will visit numerous college friends.

Versal Wright of Proctor, who is visiting his daughter in Morrisville, called on friends here last Saturday.
The "deacon" is in good health and just the same as of yore.

School commences Sept. 8, in the following districts:—No. Hyde Park, Rose Rooney and Edith Barcombe, teachers; McKinstry Hill, Lula Douglas, Doty Dist., Olive Cady.

Next Monday a camping party made up of the L. C. A. classes of 1902 and 1903 with Prof. and Mrs.
Ingalls and Rev. C. S. Hager go into camp at Elmore for a few days.

The town fathers ought to add a few chairs and a table or two to the Town Hall furniture. Every time the hall is used, furniture has to be borrowed, or, as was the case Monday night, use a shoe box for a table.

Sheriff Robbins went to Windsor to-day, escorting Henry Hurlburt recently arrested for stealing at Belvidere. Hurlburt was out on good behavior and the Governor notified the Sheriff to take him back to prison.

The numerous guests at the home of Mrs. Joanna Griswold the past week were Mrs. Nellie Fitch Crane of Omaha, Neb., Mrs. Minnie Fitch Steele of Morrisville, and the Misses Cora and Alice Bugbee of the same place.

The quadrennial appraisal of real estate shows the figures to be 1st class, 320% acres, $163,950; 2d class, 20,896% acres, $248,190—total, $412, 216% acres with a valuation of $112, 140. The 1898 appraisal was 1st class $159,310; 2d class, $259,723, total $409,033. Increase, $3,107.

E. J. Phelps of Highgate came to town Monday to buy some sheep pelts. On reaching the Hyde House he was taken violently ill with a congestive chill. He was taken to the hotel and placed in care of Chas.
Gregg, with Dr. Slayton as physician.
His wife was sent for and he improved somewhat so that he was able to go home Tuesday.

C. M. Davis, a voter in this town for upwards of forty years, was somewhat surprised on looking over the check-list to find his name not there.
Of course this was an oversight but at the same time it is somewhat ludicrous, as there are very few, if any, who can remember an election in this town in which "Munn" was not an active participant.

Advertising days, especially in the NEWS AND CITIZEN. F. M. Gale lost a pair of eyeglasses last week in Stowe and on Monday brought in an advertisement. Before the paper was issued the glasses were returned to him. What better proof is needed of the efficacy of this paper as an advertising medium than this?

There will be a picnic next Saturday by the members and friends of the Congregational Sunday School and church of this place. Everybody who would like to go may do so.
The objective point is Lake Eden and teams will leave here at eight o'clock sharp. Conveyance will be provided for all, and those who can afford to pay will be taxed 25 cents for children; adults 50 cents. Let old and young go and enjoy the day at this beautiful place.

Mr. Edward W. Manning of Brockton, Mass., son of Michael Manning of this place, was married July 14, 1902, to Miss Agnes Runahan. The following is taken from a Brockton paper: Miss Agnes Runahan and Mr.
Edward W. Manning, two popular young people of the North End, were united in marriage at the parsonage of St. Edward's church last evening at 8 o'clock, Rev. J. J. Kelley performing the ceremony. The bride was attired in a traveling gown of blue material with trimmings of white satin ribbon. They were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Margaret Runahan, who wore a gown of light blue material. The couple will enjoy a short bridal tour and on their return will make their home at the North End.

For Representative.

The Republican caucus to nominate a candidate for Representative and Justices of the Peace was held at the Town Hall Monday evening. M. P.
Cheney was chosen Moderator and W. W. Thorpe Secretary. F. R. Child was placed in nomination by Col.
McFarland, but at the suggestion of Amos Davis an informal ballot was taken which resulted in 27 votes for Child, 10 for Waite and five scattering. The formal ballot showed Child 43 votes, Waite 20, Goddard 3 and scattering 6. The nomination of Mr.
Child was made unanimous. A committee was appointed to confer with the D-mocracy and arrange a union Justice ticket. The conference agreed upon the present list of Justices, which is A. V. Wiswe, F. H.
